Sunset Bay POA Annual Meeting

Please make plans to attend the Annual meeting, which will be held on Saturday, August 7, 2010 at 2:00 PM at the Woman's Club of Aransas County Inc., Rockport, Texas, 1104 E. Concho St.

We will discuss community updates, including information on the fishing pier and will be voting for your Board officers. If you are interested in running for a position on the Board, please submit a letter or email of interest to: Sunset Bay POA, P.O. Box 5456, Victoria, TX 77903 or info@sunsetbaypoa.org. We also welcome you to send a letter or email of interest for any of our community committees. Current committees are: Maintenance, Architectural, Finance and Improvements.

AOL Travel Ranks Rockport, TX #2

The Rockport-Fulton area is well known for its excellent fishing, sailing, birding, art activities, festivals and more, but did you know that AOL Travel® ranked Rockport, TX No. 2, on the list of America's Best Beach Towns! Following is a partial excerpt from the article. "Studies perennially rank Rockport among the nation's cleanest beaches, but you can get down 'n' dirty at the many seafood shacks and shanty bars. The Rockport Center for the Arts, Texas Maritime Museum and the Victorian landmark, Fulton Mansion detail the area's history. Natural wonders include; The Big Tree, spotting whooping cranes and ruby-throated humming birds in the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge.

We are all property owners of a nationally acknowledged destination!

Pelicans Rehabbed From Oil Spill Taken to Aransas National Wildlife Refuge

Rockport, Texas made news again recently when "more than five dozen brown pelicans rehabilitated from the oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico were taken to the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge."

"The refuge was chosen because it has the coastal habitat the pelicans need and was already home to a population of brown pelicans."
